GREAT POCAHONTAS
of the
Reservation of California • Degree of Pocahontas

Grace McMaster

The Reservation News takes pleasure in presenting to its readers the portrait of our Great Pocahontas, who has labored long and zealously for the Order in California. Grace has traveled many miles up and down this great Reservation of ours assisting both the Councils and the Tribes of our Order. Blessed with a kindly disposition and a mind ripened with fraternal endeavor, this gracious lady whose term is fast drawing to a close has given to all of those that she has come in contact with an incentive to go out and do better things.

We salute you, Great Pocahontas, and hope that you will continue to spread the gospel of Freedom, Friendship and Charity for many Great Suns to come.

● POCAHONTAS HAS INSTALLATION

Before a capacity audience of friends and members, officers for the ensuing six months of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, were inducted into office last Thursday evening in the hall at Market and Hardy streets, Inglewood.

Mrs. Virginia Reading, great second councilor of the Great Council of California, was installed as pocahontas. She is a past pocahontas of the local council and the first one to go through the chairs the second time. At the present time, Mrs. Reading is junior past president of the Southern California Past Pocahontas association, having served as president last year.

Mrs. Sylvia Halderman, pocahontas, became prophetess; Mrs. Greta Byler, wenonah, and Wilbur Hockaday, powhatan. As each stump officer was installed, there was an accompaniment of eight girls carrying pastel colored fans and a song dedicated to each one.

Other officers to be installed included the desk officers and trustees, who had been installed last July to serve a year; scouts, Miss Winnie Jacobs and Mrs. Hattie Kurtz; councilors, Mrs. Grace Mead and Mrs. Ethel Bayer; runners, Mrs. Nellie DeWitt and Mrs. Madeline Grove; aides, Mrs. Etta Buchan and Mrs. Minnie Beardsley; guard of forest, Mrs. Clara Wood; guard of tepee, Mrs. Bernice Hockaday; warriors, Charles Byler, Addison Beardsley, Arthur Lago and K. L. Bayer, and musician, Mrs. Irene Tanger.

Great First Trustee Edna Grace Cooke, who is deputy of Centinela, acted as installing chief; Past Great Pocahontas Hazel Hite, senior past chief; wenenah, Frieda Mislove; prophetess, Lotta Hughes; powhatan, Harvey Hite; keeper of records, Jessie Fields; collector of wampum, Gertie Borgstrom; keeper of wampum, Verda Pearson; musician, Lou Fraser; trustees, Stella Mornant; warrior, Albert Irwin; runner, Lottie Fields; councilor, Beatrice Fraser; aides, Mae Duperault; scout, Ethel Postelwaite; guard, Anna Capelle, and runner, little Dana Tanger.

Adding to the attractiveness of the occasion were the poinsettias and greenery in the room and the corsages worn by the incoming officers.

A past pocahontas pin was presented outgoing prophetess, Miss Winnie Jacobs, the presentation being made by her mother, Mrs. Leola Jacobs, while a past pocahontas certificate was given the outgoing pocahontas, Mrs. Halderman. The presentations were accompanied by a drill of past pocahontases.

Intermission numbers were given by a whistler; Mrs. Arline Ely, soprano; and Clyde Cook, tenor. Mrs. Mabel Barclay was accompanist.

Following the ceremonies, cake and coffee were served the public and dancing enjoyed.

POCAHONTAS-REDMEN MEET

Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas and Centinela Tribe No. 273, Improved Order of Red Men were well represented in the large assemblage of enthusiastic members of this country's oldest patriotic organization in Whittier last Saturday evening. Occasion was a reception honoring the state heads of the two branches, Judge T. Johnson of Martinez, great sachem, and Mrs. Grace MacMaster of Richmond, great pocahontas.

Meetings of the two orders preceded the joint reception and social time. In the Pocahontas meeting presided over by Pocahontas Mrs. Helen Nida of the Wee-Tomp Council of Whittier, a large class of candidates was adopted. The fine degree team of the host Council exemplified the work. Mrs. Kate Miller and Mrs. Alberteen Zorgdrager were the "palefaces" from Centinela.

Mrs. MacMaster was presented a corsage from the past pocahontas of Wee-Tomp Council as well as a bouquet from the Council members.

Among those escorted in and introduced at the reception were Mrs. Virginia Reading, great second councilor in the Degree of Pocahontas and Ted Tanger, great guard of the wigwam in the Red Men.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. A. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mead, Mr. and Mrs. W. Siddall, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tanger, Mr. and Mrs. K. DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

A typically cordial California welcome against a background of golden poppies was extended Mrs. Grace McMaster of Richmond when she paid her official visit as Great Pocahontas of the state to the Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas last Thursday evening in the lodge hall at Market and Hardy streets.

Preceding the meeting a banquet honoring Mrs. McMaster was enjoyed by fifty guests at Scully's on Crenshaw boulevard. Guests included members of the state official family, great officers of the Improved Order of Red Men and members of the numerous councils in the south.

As the official visit of the Great Pocahontas is the most momentous occasion in the year's fraternal events over one hundred persons had turned out to greet their executive officer over sixty of them being local members.

The hall presented an attractive appearance decorated in festoons of golden poppies and greenery suspended from the ceiling lights while large vases of blossoms marked each stump.

Mrs. McMaster was escorted in by a foursome composed of the Council's warriors, Charles Byler, Addison Beardsley, William Groves and Fred Mead, all attired in Indian suits and introduced by the Powhatan E. H. Duffey, also wearing an Indian costume and war bonnet. She was presented a corsage and seated by the presiding pocahontas, Mrs. Virginia Reading who is also great second councilor. Clyde Cooke, tenor, dedicated a song to the honoree sung to the melody of "I Love You California."

Others introduced and seated on the platform included Mrs. Edna Grace Cooke, great first trustee, and deputy of Centinela, Harvey Hite, great trustee, I. O. R. M. Ted Tanger, great guard of the wigwam, I. O. R. M., Albert Irwin, great first brave, I. O. R. M., Mrs. Hazel Hite, past great pocahontas, and Mr and Mrs. James Fields and Mrs. Ethel Becker, deputies.

The degree work was impressively exemplified by Centinela Council's own splendid degree team of which Ted Tanger is captain, for a class of eleven candidates. It included Mrs. Glennie Hess, Mrs. Rose Owens, Mrs. Alta May Shafer, Mrs. Elizabeth Moon, Mrs. Jule Lentz, Mrs. Nellie Rush, Mrs. Emma Rains, Mrs. Kate Sims, Mrs. Addie Williams, Theodore Williams and Robert Weaver.

Near the close of the evening, Mrs. McMaster was presented a gift and bouquet of rosebuds from the Council. She gave an inspiring talk to members of the lodge, which is a branch of the oldest patriotic fraternity in the United States.

Playing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and all who arrive on time will receive 200 extra points. At the conclusion of the six weeks' series a grand prize will be awarded.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

Secrets of a year's duration were disclosed last Thursday evening when members of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, revealed who their "pill pals" had been since last October.

At refreshment time places were marked with gifts in wh... ere enclosed a short rhyme containing the name of the pal.

Hallowe'en decorations lent a festive note to the table.

As it was decided to continue this interesting custom, names were drawn for new pill pals for the next six months. Mrs. Virginia Reading is in charge.

For the benefit of the uninitiated a pill pal is a person who, keeping his identity secret, presents gifts, cards and remembrances of his "pill pal" on birthdays, holidays and other occasions. At the end of a given period the pals are revealed and it is always a delight to find out who was the donor of so many attentions.

In the meeting a splendid report was given by Mrs. Ethel Bayer, chairman of the penny circus held the preceding week.

December 10 was set as the date for a reception to be given honoring Mrs. Virginia Reading of the local council, who is a great first councilor of California. An adoption will be held on that night.

Big social night of next month will be November 12 when Frieda Mislove makes a representative visit to Centinela council for the Great Pocahontas, Grace Mae Masters. On the committee for that evening will be Mrs. Irene Tanger, Mrs. Hattie Kurtz and Mrs. Virginia Reading.

Mesdames Emalene Siddall, Greta Byler and Muriel Solomon were named on the committee for brothers' night when the menfolk will occupy the stumps.

Mrs. Maxine Willman is new chairman of the delinquent committee.

In the jitney march, Mrs. Madeline Groves won the prize.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS FOR DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

October is to be a month busy with activity for members of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas. Socially significent will be the Halloween masquerade dance Thursday evening, the 29th inst, in the lodge hall. This is the first big social affair of the fall season and the first dance to be held in several months by this lodge.

Dance will be held in Hocking hall at Hardy and Market streets. Arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Hattie Kurtz, social chairman for the month, and her committee members, who include Mrs. Maxine Willman, Mrs. Mary Reno, Miss Anna Belle Tiber and K. L. Bayer.

Prizes will be awarded for the most appropriate costumes. There will be a door prize also and novelties and favors. Public is invited.

October 15 has been set tentatively as the date for the penny circus with Mesdames Ether Bayer, Alta May Tiber and Etta Buchan on the committee in charge.

On October 22 members will learn the identity of their "pill pals" for the past year. This interesting event will be in the hands of Mesdames Madeline Groves, Rose Gallinger and Mary Reno.

Next Friday night, October 9, the second in a series of evening card parties will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Bayer at 1036 South Fir avenue where all six of the series will take place. Pinochle, five hundred and bridge will be the games of the evening and there will be worthwhile grand prizes at the close of the sequence. Miss Winnie Jacobs, Mrs. Emalene Siddall and Mrs. Greta Byler are in charge. Everyone interested in cards is invited. Average scores are being given when a player is absent.

Mrs. Laura Duffey won the jitney prize at the last regular meeting of Degree of Pocahontas. Mrs. Greta Byler and Mrs. Elizabeth Shupe, whose birthdays occur in September, were honored at this time at the refreshment table birthday cake was served by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Solomon and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tanger.

CARD PARTY FOR LODGE IS PLEASANT AFFAIR

Second in a series of card parties being given under the auspices of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, was held last Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Bayer at 1030 South Fir street.

Mrs. Wells won the prize in five hundred, while Ed Willman received the award in pinochle. George Cawthon was the recipient of the door prize.

Cake and coffee were enjoyed at refreshment time.

Third in the series of six weekly parties will be held Friday evening, the 16th inst., at the Bayer residence. The public is invited. An average score will be given to anyone attending this week who has missed previous parties.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

Plans for interesting events in the near future filled the regular business meeting of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, last Thursday evening.

A committee was appointed to meet with the Redmen to make tentative plans for a float in the Centinela Days parade. It includes Mmes. Maxine Willman, Minnie Beardsley, Katherine Donabed, Greta Byler and Emalene Siddall.

For the first time in the history of Centinela Council, since its instituting six years ago, the charter was draped. The impressive ceremony was in memory of the late Mrs. Virginia Uhlrich, an honorary member.

In the jitney march, Mrs. Elizabeth Shupe won the prize.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

Centinela Bowl in Centinela Park will be the setting for a mammoth Degree of Pocahontas meeting Saturday evening when the Past Pocahontas Association of Southern California sponsors an outdoor adoption. The open air background is particularly fitting for the work as it exemplifies the beautiful story of Indian lore.

A large crowd is expected as all Councils in the Southern part of the reservation have been invited to participate. A prize will be given the Council presenting the most candidates for adoption. Degree team of Centinela Council No. 211 of Inglewood of which Ted Tanger is captain will dramatize the adoption work.

Virginia Reading of Centinela Council, newly appointed second Councilor of California will preside over the meeting. She is president of the Association.

A committee of local members, Mesdames Irene Tanger, Catherine Lago, Etta Buchan, Minnie Beardsley and Katherine Donabed, will have charge of the refreshments.

With Deputy Grace Cooke, great first trustee, acting as installing chief, the finance officers of Centinela Council No. 211 Degree of Pocahontas were inducted into office last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Berger became collector of wampum and Mrs. Emalene Siddall, keeper of wampum.

Appointed on the scrap book committee for this term were Mrs. Maxine Willman, Mrs. Irene Tanger and Miss Winnie Jacobs.

In the jitney march, Mrs. Ethel Bayer won the prize. Jello and wafers were served after the meeting by Mrs. Leola Jacobs, Miss Winnie Jacobs and Mrs. Virginia Reading.

PAST POCAHONTAS

One of the largest affairs ever sponsored by the Past Pocahontas Association of Southern California will be the outdoor adoption to be staged in Centinela Bowl on Saturday evening, September 12. All Councils of the Degree of Pocahontas in the south will participate.

Degree team of the local Council Centinela 211 will exemplify the work. Arrangements were completed Sunday morning in Long Beach at the home of Mrs. Clara Stanton at 1642 Cherry street. Refreshment plans are in the hands of the local council.

In the absence of the president Mrs. Virginia Reading of Centinela, vice president, Mrs. Tom Frazier of Long Beach presided over the meeting which was followed by a picnic luncheon in the Stanton gardens. Enjoying the day were Miss Winnie Jacobs, Mrs. Etta Buchan, Mrs. Sylvia Halderman, Mrs. Emalene Siddall, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Willman, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tanger and Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Bayer.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS

A large attendance of members, including many of the new members adopted at the recent outdoor ceremony, enjoyed the regular weekly meeting of Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, last Thursday evening.

November 12 has been set as a tentative date for the Great Pocahontas visit of Miss Frieda Mislove to the local council. An adoption of palefaces (new members) will take plage on the night as well as on Thursday evening, October 8.

Miss Winnie Jacobs was named chairman of the scrap book committee and Miss Anna Belle Tiber appointed a member. On the flower committee will be Mesdames Maxine Willman, Minnie Beardsley and Ethel Bayer.

In the jitney march, Mrs. Rose Gallinger received the prize.

Following the meeting sandwiches and coffee were enjoyed. Mrs. Katherine Donabed, Mrs. Minnie Beardsley and Mrs. Etta Buchan were hostesses.

CARD PARTY PLANNED FRIDAY EVENING

Friday night, the second in the popular series of card parties being sponsored by Centinela Council No. 211, Degree of Pocahontas, will be given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Bayer at 1036 South Fir avenue.

Pinochle and five hundred are the two games to be played.

Public is invited. Anyone who was unable to attend last week will be given the average score for the last party.

Playing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and all who are there on time will be given 200 extra points.

At the conclusion of the six weeks' series a grand prize will be awarded.

In last Friday night's game Mrs. Emalene Siddall won in pinochle, while in five hundred Mrs. Young and Mrs. George Cawthon were winners. Mrs. Peacock received the door prize. Refreshments were enjoyed.
